Proceedings: Order Dismissing Case

On August 2, 2010, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") filed a report regarding the status of this action following passage of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, H.R. 4173, 111th Cong. (2010). The FDIC reported that in its view, the case should be dismissed because plaintiff had received full insurance coverage for her accounts at IndyMac Bank. On August 20, 2010, the court directed plaintiff to file a pleading by September 7, 2010, stating whether she agreed with the FDIC that the matter should be dismissed. The court noted that in the absence of a response, it would presume that plaintiff consented to dismissal and the case would be dismissed forthwith. On September 9, 2010, the court extended plaintiff's deadline to respond to September 21, 2010, at the request of the plaintiff and without an objection from the defendant. To date, plaintiff has not filed a response to the court's order. Consequently, the court directs the clerk to dismiss the action.
